Attached is a note to Ben Evans from Jeanne Davis, Staff Secretary of the NSC, levying a request to which (if it be literally construed) an adequate reply would require a mind-boggling amount of work. This smells to me like the harebrained thought of some junior staffer. When Brent Scowcroft returns on 8 April, I will get in touch with him to find out what is really needed. I pass this note along since it will require some careful thought to structure a sensible response to any portion of this request that is really serious.
